The failure to respect and understand the opinions of others has haunted all generations. We hope that today's students take the responsibility of changing this human failure. We also hope that their years at Avoca Central has prepared them to accept this challenge.

Avoca Central School

Avoca, New York

Macrame, oils, clay and glazes--they're all a part of his colorful world. For many years he has provided an interesting break between classes in our elementary and junior high grades, and to high school students he has given much more. Through him we have become aware, and even more important, stimulated with the enjoyment that art can bring us. He has brought to the art department at extensive Art Fair and Art Club, and an interested student body. Our class realizes the importance of what he has done, especially for those who are planning a career in art, but for the others who are merely interested as well, so we are very happy to have a chance to show him our gratitude.

It is with great pleasure that the Class of 1972 dedicates our Avocan to Mr. Michael Crotty.

When most of us met her we were probably a little frightened. It was a big and important step for us all, our first year at school. But she guided us through our strange surroundings, calmed our fears, and started us out on the right foot for a rewarding school life. We now realize how significant her help was for us, as well as for the many children who came after us with the same hopeful, yet reluctant, anticipations.

The Class of 1972 takes great pride in expressing our sincere appreciation to Mrs. Amelia Lynch.

In Memoriam

Life is a narrow vale between the cold and barren peaks.
We strive in vain to look beyond the heights . . .
. . . Is there beyond the silent night an endless day?
Is death a door that leads to light?

AVOCA MEMORIAL POST 1315

Avoca, New York

Linda Tronetti and Steve Shaver, although they were not here at school in our senior year, have obtained all the credits necessary to graduate with us. We wish to give them the recognition they deserve.

The final and lasting pattern of a school extends far beyond the physical structure and maze of faces. These only fuse and fade into memories. What we put into those school years decides the strenght that pattern of memories will have for the future.
